Certain Blessings... This verse (1 Samuel 1:19) tells of this family's faithfulness to God, just before Hannah's birth of the first judge, Samuel. This was the result of her prayers to God, offering this child to His service. Often in the Bible when a woman is barren and God opens her womb, a special child is born. Sarah was barren and was given Isaac. Rachel was barren and received Joseph. Elizabeth was barren and birthed John the Baptist.

There is no certainty that a barren Christian woman will have a child, as many can attest today. Nevertheless, we do have a promise that what is barren in our lives is the harbinger of blessing. This may be hard to see, but God has promised to relieve us when we trust Him as Hannah did. How we receive blessings is up to God, but we can be sure they are coming.

The Bible promises that God will give back everything we have lost in His name -- plus some. It happens sometimes on earth, but it is certainly figured into the balance sheet in heaven. Father, thank You that nothing is more certain than Your blessings to the faithful. -- an Open Windows devotion

Use of Fellowship Hall -- Effective immediately: please contact Cyndi Comito (336-215-7635), Fellowship Committee Chair, for any use of the fellowship hall. All events must go through her. Thank you.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Jeanine Duke & family as her husband, Phillip Duke passed away on May 7th, losing the battle to cancer. Please be in prayer for this family.

Joys of Motherhood... A hug for no reason, smiles and giggles, hearing Scripture and prayer from your child's lips, reading aloud together, quiet moments on the couch, watching your child be kind to another, a child's look of surprise and joy, the words "I love you" -- and a sticky kiss. -- Unknown
