Waiting On the Mountain... My goodness. It seems that living in this world is getting more and more challenging as each year passes. I continually find myself saying, Even now, Lord Jesus, come! I can't imagine things getting any darker, and then they do.
 The prophet Micah lived during a stressful time politically and nationally. He shared a message from the Lord that we would do well to listen to. He tells us that God has a plan to redeem His people.
 That's us. No matter how difficult life becomes, our God can and will redeem it. He wants us to take His message and His teachings to others, but it requires that we sit at His feet. As we sit, we hear His heart, learn His Word, and experience His love. Today seek the Lord on the mountaintop. He loves you, and He is waiting there for you.
Father, I seek You on the mountaintop and long for Your presence and instruction in my life. -- an Open Windows devotion
