Fill Your Bucket!... David Brooks, author of The Road to Character, created a moral bucket list in an effort to develop "eulogy virtues" -- the traits praised at people's funerals. Qualities such as humility, dependence and energizing love offer more than any "resume virtues" ever will, he writes.

"There's joy in freely chosen obedience to organizations, ideas and people. There's joy in mutual stumbling. There's an aesthetic joy we feel when we see morally good action, when we run across someone who is quiet and humble and good, when we see that however old we are, there's lots to do ahead." What's in your bucket?
