"For freedom Christ has set us free" (Galatians 5:1). We thank God for the freedom of salvation as well as for the freedom of worship in this land.

Dynamic Spirit, remind me this week through the awesome power of fireworks that you are God's power at work in my life. Welcome all, as we worship together with faith, and loving our family and friends!

One Nation Under God... In the English language, the order of words in a sentence makes a difference. So it matters that in our pledge of allegiance, the phrase is "one nation under God." It is not "one God, under our nation." And in Psalm 33:12, a nation is blessed when they worship God. God isn't like a child on the playground, hoping He will get picked by the winning team. As the Civil War raged, according to one story, one of Abraham Lincoln's military advisors remarked that he was grateful God was on their side. Lincoln supposedly responded, "Sir, my concern is not whether God is on our side; my greatest concern is to be on God's side, for God is always right." Our nation has indeed been blessed by the Lord. But if God continues to bless us, it will not be because we chose Him. It will be because "he hath chosen [us] for his own inheritance." This week, as we celebrate our independence, let's remember our total dependence on God.

Father, we often say, "God bless America."

Senior Adults... Sign up now and go with us on Friday, July 12th @ 11:00 a.m., for lunch at K&W and go get PEACHES.

Men's Breakfast -- It's great food and a time for all men & boys to learn more and grow in Christ! Invite some friends and join us on Sunday, July 21st @ 8:00 a.m., in the fellowship hall. If you plan to attend, please sign up in the church foyer. Thank you.

Use of Fellowship Hall -- please contact Cyndi Comito (336-215-7635), our Fellowship Committee Chair, for any use of the fellowship hall. All events must go through her. Thank you.

All-around Trust... A pitfall to trusting God, which we are prone to fall into, is to turn to God in trust in the greater [crises] of life while seeking to work through the minor difficulties ourselves. A disposition to trust in ourselves is part of our sinful nature. It sometimes takes a major crisis, or at least a moderate one, to turn us toward the Lord. A mark of Christian maturity is to continually trust the Lord in the minutiae of daily life. If we learn to trust God in the minor adversities, we will be better prepared to trust him in the major ones. -- Jerry Bridges, Trusting God
