"As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the Lord surrounds his people" (Psalm 125:2,ESV). Thanks, God, for surrounding me always with your love and mercy.

Welcome to worship on this Labor Day weekend, as we celebrate all work -- paid and unpaid -- that's done for the glory of God and the service of others.

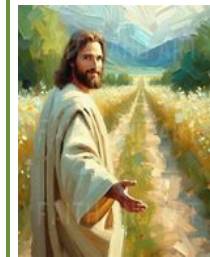

Senior Adults, sign up now to go with us Friday, Sept. 13th as we tour Mt. Airy and have lunch at Snappy Lunch! We'll leave the church at 10:00 a.m., so invite a friend and come join us!

Reminder... You are invited to the wedding of Christina Comito and Philip Roberson, here at the church on Saturday, Sept. 14th at 4:00 p.m., with a reception following the service. See Cyndi Comito if you have any questions.

Our Men's Breakfast ... It's great food and a time for all men & boys! Invite some friends and join us on Sunday, Sept. 15th @ 8:00 a.m., in the fellowship hall. If you plan to attend, please sign up in the church foyer. Thank you.

It's our Church Homecoming! We hope you will plan now to be here on Sunday, Sept. 29th, as we celebrate our 59th year. Rev. Alton Cook, a former pastor, will be our guest speaker. Following the service we invite you to stay for our covered-dish lunch in the fellowship hall.

Follow God's Lead... Have you ever watched a well-trained dog walk with its master? On or off the leash, the dog will slow or quicken its pace, turn left or right, or immediately stop at the soft command of his master's voice.

Such isn't the case with my pooch. Either he's straining ahead or lagging behind, darting after a bird or stubbornly lingering over an interesting scent. He isn't content to follow my lead.

Sometimes that latter scene resembles my own walk with God. At times, I rush ahead or lag behind, veer to the right or stumble to the left, oblivious of my Master's pace and direction. How much better to walk closely with God and let him lead!

Thank You... I would like to thank you all for all of the things you collected for my school class. I can not tell you how much your kindness and generosity means to me. The items will be a big help to my students and me this year. I feel so fortunate to be a part of such a loving church. Please continue to pray for me as I start this new year that I might show Christ's love through my words and actions. Please continue to pray for the students and their parents as well. Again, thank you for all your love and kindness. -- Sheryl Bogue
