Jesus, you ask, "Who do you say I am?" (Matt.16:15). We answer, "Savior, Lord, Christ, Son of God." Yes. But may we be open to learning still more about who you are for us and the world. Amen.

"One generation shall praise Your works to another" (Psalm 145:4, NKJV). We come together -- young, old and in between -- to praise the Lord and celebrate his works. Welcome to all!

-- Seniors, you can also sign up now to go with us on Friday, Sept. 13th, as we tour the town of Mt. Airy and have lunch at Snappy Lunch! We'll leave the church at 10:00 a.m. Invite a friend and come join us!

Early Influences... Because his dad was a pastor, Albert Schweitzer (1875-1965) spent much time in church while growing up. Seeing devoted worshippers had a great impact on the future physician, theologian and Nobel Peace Prize winner. "From the services in which I participated as a child, I took with me into life a feeling for the solemn and the need for stillness," Schweitzer said. On the first Sunday of every month, his father spoke about missionaries, and Schweitzer later became a medical missionary. Interestingly, Protestant and Catholic congregations shared the church in Schweitzer's small town in Alsace (which shifted between German and French control). The groups met in different areas of the church at different times on Sundays. That attitude of religious tolerance led to Schweitzer's belief that Christians should work toward unity of faith and purpose.

Men & Boys Breakfast

Our next Men's Breakfast will be on Sunday, Sept. 15th @ 8:00 a.m. We encourage all men to invite a friend and join us in the fellowship hall for a time of food, faith & fellowship! Please sign up in the church foyer so we'll know how many to plan for. Thank you!

Unanswered Prayer? One day a little boy asked his pastor-dad why he always bowed his head for a moment before starting to preach. The father, delighted that his son was so aware of what went on during worship, answered, "I pray for God to help me deliver a good sermon to the people." Alas, his delight was short-lived and fizzled at the child's response: "So why doesn't God ever answer?"
